

2023 Annual Meeting & Hike Fest Lodging

Mountain View Cabins, Tellico Plains, Tennessee

November 2 – 5, 2023

Retreat Cabin

This truly unique cabin has custom-made chandeliers and furniture. It features a game room on the lower floor, wrap-around decks on main and lower levels, and a huge common room with lots of sofas. With three floors, there's plenty of open space — you won't feel crowded at all. Plus, there's plenty of parking!

For the guests' breakfast, lunch and snacks, there are three double refrigerators in the community kitchen. Each room has a private bathroom and TV. 3-Nite Stay Required!

Additional Camping Information

There are lots of campsites along the Tellico River Road, Citico Creek Road, and Bald River Road. Most are free and the ones with bathrooms are maybe $10 a night / $5 with a senior pass. In November, most would be empty. See map for the ones with bathrooms along Tellico River Road. It's unknown when they are going to close River Road at Bald River Falls. If closed for bridge replacement, Indian Boundary or any of the numerous campsites along Citico Creek and Doublecamp Creek roads would be an alternative.

The best bet is the overflow campground at Indian Boundary — cheap, with water, pit toilets and access to the shower houses in the main campground if it is still open that weekend. Go to recreation.gov to learn when the main campground will close in November (probably the Monday after our meeting). The overflow is open-year round and there are probably 20 sites in it. These are not on recreation.gov since they are first come, first served. The campsites without bathrooms are not shown on the maps, but there must be 15 along Citico Creek Road and 8 or so along Doublecamp Creek Road.
